

DEEP TREBLE

from Top Beat

1998 © 2022 Roger Lienke

(spoken over music vamp)

Reggie:

Come on in – you got nothing to lose

We offer nothing to you – at a cost much less

Than ever before

Nothing is real – nothing is the real thing

If you are excited by nothing – come to Deep Treble

We got nothing for you – like nothing you've had before

(sung by Reggie with Carmen)

Verse 1

It takes six crows to hackle a solution (and)

To tackle a problem and pin it down

It takes six crows to dispose

Of a potentially sticky situation

Verse 2

Come to Deep Treble at the Hotel Clayton

When the sun goes down

There's Onsombo waiting for you

Waiting there for you

Pre-Chorus

When the moon is high in the midnight sky

And the dancers are in motion

Let the beat get through to the raven in you

It will carry you with devotion

Black as water in the ocean

Chorus

Come away to the Hotel Clayton

There's no harm in feeling blue

Come away to Deep Treble

And let Carmen sing to you

Instrumental

(Verse 1)

(Pre-Chorus)

(Chorus) 2x
